Turn Your Words Into Cold Hard Cash! "Let This Girl Out of The Ordinary Show You How to Do Extra Ordinary Things!"

By Susie Greggor

Kathleen Mailer calls herself "a girl out of the ordinary" and she is right – she is truly an out of the ordinary extraordinary woman. You may not see her on Oprah (yet) but you may have seen her in one of her dynamic interviews on TV and radio. Even in her newspaper and magazine interviews she comes across as effervescent with a powerful energy to change the world – one author/coach/business leader at a time.

Kathleen's integrity, heartfelt and encouraging manner can bring a smile to the face of any downtrodden person. She lifts your spirit up so you can believe anything is possible. She knows. She has been there and done that and says that thinking you can't do it is "crap". Yes, she has said, "crap" in her live presentations, she has said, "crap" on television and she has said, "crap" on radio. She calls them like she sees them and, if you talk like you are a failure, useless and incapable of doing what she has done, she will say "crap" as many times as necessary.

Although Kathleen's warm smile and ready laugh might make you think she will go easy on you, think again! She will wake you up and tell you like it is. The only thing holding you back from success is what she calls "your inner terrorist", that little voice that tells you that you aren't good enough, God doesn't love you enough or you don't deserve better. She says "crap" when she needs to and she kicks butt when necessary. She believes in offering all of you a "hand up" instead of a "hand out" but she can only do that if you stand up, put your shoulders back and look her straight in the eye while meeting her hand with yours half way. Then she helps you believe in yourself and believe you can meet all the challenges needed to move forward in life – to a very successful life, while you're at it.

Kathleen has gone across Canada with her passionate and engaging charm to speak to groups and tell audiences how to turn their words into COLD HARD CASH. Her "personal mission is to encourage, equip and empower those with a message to share it with the world". She does this through seminars, keynotes and coaching programs. Her home study courses teach you step-by-step "how to write books, create keynotes in 15 minutes or less, develop workshops and educational material so that YOU, the messenger, can create an income stream that allows you to do what you love."

And it works.

As Raymond Aaron (author of Chicken Soup for the Canadian Soul) says, "Kathleen has developed unique ways to support aspiring authors to become real published authors. She has done it for me and many of my clients too... what she offers really works."

Her successes include a young man with fragile X syndrome, men and women in their later years and even children. She has had authors as young as age 8, as long lived as 80 and every decade between. If they can do it, you can do it. You just need to believe in yourself and tell that "inner terrorist" to shut up!

If all of us as Canadians do this, we can become "icons of visionary change". Kathleen says, "We have so much to offer each other and the world, but no one knows about us.

Canadians need to STAND UP and start to SHARE their purpose in a BIG Way. No small potatoes."

Oh, by the way Kathleen says the G word too. Yes, that G word "GOD". She believes in God, talks openly about her beliefs and with her family has formed Mailer Ministries. Call it the Supreme Being or any other word that suits you, she doesn't mind, but she believes you too can be a force for good in the world. Ask Kathleen how. "We are meant to BE SOMEBODY and DO SOMETHING HUGE with our life!", says Mailer.

She also readily talks about "her assignment" and how "change is good". Yet this does not mean she is never tested or challenged. Take her company "The Opulence Academy" – it grew from a one woman show to one that included a gathering of core people. Sometimes the gathering had to be pared back to ensure the best people with the truest of intentions (or as Kathleen describes them "those who are within their integrity") were in her group. Eventually she realized she was being challenged to "kick it up a notch". As she became the successful change agent in helping others deliver their messages, she knew she needed a name more suited to the business she was finding was becoming the most successful and the most needed by others. Thus the new name has become Word$2Wealth Institute.

What makes Kathleen tick and keeps her going? It is her family and her pride in her daughter, a beautiful teenager who shares her gifts effortlessly; her husband of 15 years, always 100% partner in their business; as well as her (almost adult) niece that lives with them and is creating an explosion of positive change in this world.

It is also developing her "other baby" – "the Words To Wealth Institute and creating a coaching program for leaders who want "MORE" in their life." It includes "Watching people realize that they CAN write books, create coaching/training material – and it doesn't have to take years... beats out the Entrepreneur of Year Awards and other things".

If you have a message you are dying to get out but are stuck, contact Kathleen. You can become one of "her success stories". Why wait any longer? It makes no sense because you can become more successful and bring more good things into your life sooner, if you start now.
